THESE LOVELY TOILETTES

are trimmed with silk crimp or fine lace, and are lined with silk, the effect is soft and harmonious as a tinted sea-shell.

Handsome silks are worn in the morning, with equally rich hats and parasols, and as elbow sleeves are very fashionable.

Long, light-colored gloves follow as a matter of course—imparting a very drowsy appearance. Grass (ben) or linen batiste and narrow "butter" lace are a combination which has spread like "wild-fire," and although a plain and inexpensive fabric, when the perforated varieties are made up over silk, it becomes a different matter. Plain grass lineu is just as stylish as the perforated, and waist, collarettes or frons are seen everywhere, and fifteen lengthwise rows of "butter" lace on a sleeve (in three clusters) is not an exaggeration.

LADE COLLETTES

The two Misses Sheehan, daughters of Cornelius Sheehan, of Saratoga Springs, each $200,000.

Two Misses Nolan, daughters of ex-Major M. N. Nolan of Albany and Saratoga Springs, each $250,000.

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, — JULY 24, 1895.

Notice of Change.
As the CLIMAX has changed ownership, all persons indebted to it by account are requested to settle at once. The old business must be adjusted, and that without delay.

Sunday's rain was another "ground seeder."

Good Grass for rent—see ad of G. J. White & Son.

Cassius Marcellus, child of Laney Clay, died at Stanton.

J. Allen Embry lives at Waco and J. Lester Allen at Lexington.

None was held without bail at Louisville for killing Bill Best.

—Look about the Fair grounds and see a few yellow waist are visible.

—Bill Baxter, son of the late Hon. G. Baxter, is ill with lung trouble.

A two-story frame residence building on Irving street, near Fair ground gate.

The menbers that handle the most money don't have a treasurer—banks, for instance.

—Our Perkins correspondent, Jay Ellis, has a wheelbarrow load of news in this issue.

French & Green have closed out their livery business at London and removed to Madison.

Have you seen Cole Taylor's comedy, "Swing, rocking chair, bicycle and rattle" that works automatically?

Word from Lexington, Sunday, was to expect that Miss Mattie Tribble is in town and may be at home before long.

Business at the Second National Bank increased so much that an extension of the counter space has been found necessary.

Henry Duncan, colored, well-known sheepherder, died yesterday, aged probably 50 years, and leaves a wife and three children.

A border is wanted to mind the setting do congregate on North Second, Broadway, Walnut and North Broad Streets night.

—Some times it is not much to be a prop or a son of a prop, or a star, for there is But Prof in a Winchester for stealing a horse.

Hon. John S. Phelps has been nominated by the Democrats of Fayette for Representative, and Hon. C. J. Dickey for the Senate—both Madison men.

For nearly all-the-time-accurate Danville located the Republican and Constitutional convention at Winchester, evidently getting the conventional bairing confused.

Refugee to High Oaks Sanitarium, a well-known Main street man called it Oakley, which showed no mind, as well as the horses, 8-11-12.

—A movement is being laid from West to Walnut, along B street, with an advantage to the residents. Walnut and Parker streets where a few more houses have been built in recent years.

—Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of Rev. Claude Johnson, died of consumption at Cedar Hill, and was married to Mr. L. C. Johnson, Agent of the C. & O. 2-3-4.

—A meeting of the Mt. Sterling delegates to the Republican convention at Louisville, last Tuesday, headed by Mr. J. W. Patterson, and the remainder of the delegation, feeling, "there was no other people mustn't be more'n half bat."

Rev. R. E. Neel and son, Marshall, have rented Mr. J. B. Higgins' hotel and purchased his personal and a portion of his rooms and will continue business at the old stand. The junior member of the firm will attend to the business to a great extent and Mr. Neel will continue his evangelistic work, in which he has been very successful—Inquirer Journal.

Help to Answer.

The three colored rapists were tried, last and held for grand jury examination. Bail $300 each, in default of which were sent to jail.

—Winchester Fair.

See advertisement of the Winchester Fair into-days CLIMAX. More than $2000 in premiums, besides cups, seals, and other prizes. Commodions stand, excellent track.

Wheat Coming in.

During last week wheat at $10.00 or 12.00 bushels of wheat in the market at 56 to 58 cents. They say that wheat is lighter by two pounds of flour to the bushel than it has been at any time since he came to the country.

Known Here.

Everybody, familiar with the vehicles that traverse the streets of Richmond, knows the little gilt-mounted wagon that bears the name of Frank Fehr. Mr. Fehr and Miss Pauline Hecht will be married July 24 at the Richeland Hotel in Chicago. The matter has been whispered about for some time. The ceremony will take place at 7 o'clock, and only the immediate friends and relatives of the parties will be present. No cards have been issued.

—Frank Fehr, yesterday morning, Bronston, wrangled an iron rod or bar from the steam heating apparatus and struck Mitchell terrible blows over the head, rending him unconscious, and inflicting wounds which resulted in death about noon yesterday. Patterson, a pensioner, who is almost cured, gave the alarm. Bronston, frenzied as he was, seemed to know that Patterson intended and threatened his life, but Patterson succeeded in attracting attention. All efforts to revive Mitchell were vain.

—Coroner Hood held an inquest yesterday afternoon, and the facts were brought out as stated. Bronston was mangled and placed in a separate cell.

Richmond has two colored George Bronstons. One of them, "Aunt Mandy's George," is here and neither crazy nor poor. "Waller George" has been in the Penitentiary several times, and was last seen from Madison for forging a check on J. S. Collins. His term was for three years and has about expired. He is probably the lunatic in question.

S. Convention of James Hodgkin, Sr.

Mr. James Hodgkin, one of Clark county's best citizens, died at his home on South Main street, in this city, Tuesday afternoon, July 16th.

He was born in 1820, hence was in his 75th year. He was twice married his first wife being Ormie Quisenberry, his last wife Mrs. Gillespie. Eight children survive him, Samuel J. Tandy Q. Philip, John M. F. Bush, William, Rachel and Mrs. J. R. Martin.

Deceased was, for, perhaps, fifty years a member of the Christian church, and for many years was an Elder in the Forest Grove church, of this county.

Mr. Hodgkin and Mr. E. C. Browning, who died a few days since, were schoolmates and warm, devoted friends, and it was remarked at the time of the latter's death, that the friends would not long be separated.—Winchester Democrat.

The mother was a sister of George Miller of Madison.

Mr. Terley as a Frontispiece.

A large part of Syracuse, New York, just published an extensive and elegant business catalogue. The front page is adorned with a "lone Isherwood" and Mr. Green & Terley, of this place was selected as the model. With that note, that he wore to the Republican convention and equipped with real, pale and sun-baked, he looks "sunburned," as the saying goes.

Pools Sold.

Pools sold, last night, on 10-cent races as follows: 2:25 pace, 3 in, 5 in, Plaesmening favorite. 3-minute pace, Julian May favorite.

First Day of the Fair.

Fair crowd and good rings. Horse racing interesting, and a larger number of horses present than usual. Big crowd expected to-day. Prof. Herbert's band is receiving applause.

Kentucky River.

It is said that the Chief of Engineers in charge of rivers and harbors will recommend to the next Congress that an appropriation of $500,000 can be profitably spent during the next fiscal year on improvements of the Kentucky River. This is a matter of some interest to our citizens, and it is hoped that the recommendation will be acted upon.—Frankfort Capital.

He's Satisfied.

"You seem to be deeply absorbed in a great array of figures," we remarked to ex-Sheriff J. W. Bates, whom we found standing on the Street, Saturday, carefully scrutinizing a statement of the Hanover National Bank of New York. "Well, I have some stock in this concern and I am just looking at the last report," he replied.

"How do you like it?" we asked. "Oh, I can't kick," he said; "individual deposits are $6,494,000 and surplus fund $1,800,000."

New Business Manager of Farn.

The business of the Ashen Lumber Company at Farn, which is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the State, is now under the management of C. W. Bart, late of Saginaw, Michigan, who succeeds Capt. J. B. Thomas as manager for the company. Mr. Bart and his father own a majority of the stock in the company which is capitalized at $1,000,000. The elder Mr. Bart was a few years ago the Democratic candidate for Governor of Michigan, and Mr. C. W. Bart is a young man of pleasant address and we gladly welcome such an acquisition to the business men of our country.—Winchester Democrat.

Put the Matter Short.

The Railroad Commissioner Convention, which was in session, Tuesday night, when the CLIMAX went to press, completed its work about 1 o'clock by nominating John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, as the druggist who had precipitated the floor of the bridge to the creek below, and as the threshing was going on, he said, "I am a gentleman, but I have an old master, and no man ever will hear me use in the presence of cultivated people—of elegant gentlemen and accomplished ladies, like these in this house, such insulting, indecent and ungentlemanly language as that indulged in by the delegate from Campbell county, in distinguishing his color, his education and his advantages?" Lyons subsided most effectually, and it was all over but the shouting.

Lamb Shipments.

J. W. Bates & Co. have shipped three thousand lambs, average weight, 75 pounds. The price has been 4¢ [4¢] cents. This is about half the season's purchases by this firm.

Texas Fever.

Texas fever, that dread cattle disease, is spreading rapidly, and unless the State Board of Health is aroused from its lethargy it will become epidemic throughout the State. It is now epidemic in Oldham and Jefferson counties in a virulent form, and is growing worse and spreading each day.

The disease first appeared three weeks ago, and has rapidly spread until it will take drastic measures to eliminate it, or even to check its spread. The disease has been taken in hand when it first appeared it could have been easily checked. Good houses are expected every night this week.

For the Atlanta Exposition.

The Governor has appointed Mrs. C. D. Clements as one of the Kentucky delegates at the great Atlanta Exposition. She wishes to secure relief for exhibition and will be glad if any one having rare articles will lend them for the exposition.

Monday night a "Midway Palace" was given in the court house yard to form a fund to pay expenses of the proposed exhibit. Booties of various kinds dispensed refreshments, and there was music and other attractions.

Death Trap Discovered.

A Nicholville special of 21st to the Louisville Post says:

Word reached here to-day of a dastardly attempt at the wholesale slaughter of human life, which was only foiled by the most skillful.

Saturday afternoon a traction engine pulling a threshing machine loaded with twenty hands was moving from one farm to another, and on the road had to cross an eighty-foot bridge, which spanned a creek and being twenty feet high above the water. Just before crossing the bridge the engine was stopped, and some of the hands walked down to the bridge and under it through the water. On glancing up they saw that every lap which held the floor of the bridge in position had been removed, and was only held by the fraction of the teeth.

The least weight would have precipitated the floor of the bridge to the creek below, and as the threshing was going on, he said, "I am a gentleman, but I have an old master, and no man ever will hear me use in the presence of cultivated people—of elegant gentlemen and accomplished ladies, like these in this house, such insulting, indecent and ungentlemanly language as that indulged in by the delegate from Campbell county, in distinguishing his color, his education and his advantages?" Lyons subsided most effectually, and it was all over but the shouting.

The Colt Hastings.

Last week's CLIMAX briefly referred to the purchase by Belmont of Hastings. Dr. Neel referred to in the unjoined article from the Versailles Sun, formerly had his office at the Hotel of the Potomac, No. 2, Department of the Potomac, has employed Mr. Lott Flannery to prepare a design for a monument to Gen. Green Clay Smith, of Kentucky, that should cost not less than $2,000. Gen. Smith was Past Department Commander of the Potomac Union Veterans Union, and at the time of his death an officer of John A. Logan's command.

The press, French Tipton, The Druggist, W. G. White, The Law, J. A. Sullivan, The Man in the Moon, Dr. Baughman, The Dentist, Dr. A. W. Smith, The Banker, J. Stone Walker, The Scraper, Dr. Vaughn, The Politician, Gov. McCrory.

The Last Rose of Summer, Dr. Foster. The speeches were brief but many excellent points were made and nearly all exhibited considerable humor.

Judge Tipton said that the relation between the press and the public was close.

The last week of the year, the 21st, will be the first start this year at Columbus, last Monday, and ends down in three straight heats.

The best time made by two-year-olds so far, this year, was made in a race at Columbus, last week, by Hattie R. T., Mr. W. L. Sperry's roll, Silver Lake, won second money, after taking the lead in the 2:14.

Benzetta 2:12 winner of the big Lexington, last fall, made her first start this year at Columbus, last Monday, and won hands down in three straight heats.

Jessie Mae Hall at New Opera House.

The opening performance at the White Birch opera house by Jessie Mae Hall was a great success. The actress is worthy of patronage and would draw in the largest cities. She is well supported. The attendance was good, and especially so when other attractions nearer the centre of the town for less money were claiming attention for that night only. Good houses are expected every night this week.

South Eastern Medical Association.

This association convened in annual session at the court house on Friday. Only about twenty visiting physicians were present, outside of Madison county.

Hon. W. B. Smith delivered the address of welcome on the part of the people, and Dr. J. M. Poyntz on the part of the Practitioners Club of Richmond. Dr. Manning, of Manchester a gentleman of distinguished bearing, delivered the response for the association and opened the exposition by reading a paper on "The Ideal Physician." The remainder of the program, as announced heretofore, was carried out. Altogether the meeting was a pleasant and profitable one. It will meet, next year, at Middleborough.
